

Pictures of the 2019 National Muster, Bethpage Camp Resort, Urbanna, VA, and Tri-State's September 2019 Muster at Cool Breeze, Galax, VA.

Tri-State
2019 National Muster
Attendees:
Left to right--
Diane & Wayne
Collier
Tim & Barbara
Burke
Lonnie & Gail
Alley
Gary and Ann
Cranford

Left to right:
John & Dorothy
Bradberry
Colleen & Keith
Hardman

(not pictured)
David & Jackie
Weis & Karen &
Peter Kerner

Immediate Past President, Doug Blaha (seated) recognized for his leadership as President

Tri-State
2019 SE
Outstanding
Chapter of the Year Award

2019 All regions Outstanding Chapter of the year award

New SMART president, Paul Rider, presenting David Weis with Lifetime Member Award

SMART President, Paul Rider, awarding David Weis and another SMART member for recruiting the most members

About 250 SMART members waiting for dinner.

Colleen, "Where's the beef?"

David & Jackie Weis with their newest fur baby, so adorable

Dorothy crabbing down at the doc with a string and a raw piece of chicken tied to it. Yup, there's a crab in the bottom of the net!

Tri-State members enjoying social time.

Unfortunately, we had unwanted guests' "flies", but we didn't let a few little flying pests keep us from eating. We covered the food and ate anyway. It was soooo good.

John & Dorothy Bradberry

Tim & Barbara Burke

Lonnie & Gail Alley

Diane & Wayne Collier

Gary and Ann Cranford

Reviewing photos from Keith & Colleen's Alaska SMART Caravan trip

Miscellaneous pictures from the cruise and colonial America

Tobacco prep house, drying, storage and packing

Servants quarters, small & no means of heating

The kitchen separate from the main house in the event it caught fire and burnt down.

The main house and farm

The Christopher Robinson house set on 300 acres, originally. The Bethpage resort was part of the land.

The Christian Robinson family cemetery. The curator of the Urbanna museum is dating one of the remaining family members that has already made arrangements to be buried there upon his death. The oldest gravestone was dated the early '1700s.

<http://www.urbannabaptistchurch.org/ubcs-history/>

The cruise to Naval Station Norfolk, the largest naval complex in the world located in the Southeastern corner of the Commonwealth of Virginia

https://www.cnic.navy.mil/regions/cnrma/installations/ns_norfolk.html

Tri-State Muster
September 2019
Galax, VA

Peek a boo, we know who you are.

Muster Co-Host, Carol Crossett, taking a break to eat

Muster hosts, Cork & Robyn enjoying an afternoon break

Co-host, Bob
Crossett, serving stew.